

COMP-REG-2173: Compliance Reference Document

Department: Compliance

Author: Christine Garcia

Effective Date: 2024-06-03

1. Document Scope and Executive Summary

This reference document outlines the core policies, standard operating procedures (SOPs), and operational governance for the

The scope of this document includes:

- * Overview of compliance policies and SOPs
- * Responsibilities and roles within the Compliance department
- * Monitoring and reporting mechanisms for identifying and addressing non-compliance issues
- * Penalties and consequences for non-compliance

2. Core Policies and Standard Operating Procedures

2.1 Policy on Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure Agreements (NDAs)

The company has a strict policy of maintaining confidentiality regarding all business dealings, trade secrets, and intellectual prop

- * Procedure: Employees must obtain approval from the Compliance department prior to sharing or disclosing confidential inform
- * Roles:
 - + Compliance Officer: Approves NDAs and ensures compliance with confidentiality policies
 - + Employee: Signs NDAs and maintains confidentiality

2.2 Policy on Gifts, Favors, and Entertainment (GFE)

The company has a policy prohibiting employees from accepting gifts, favors, or entertainment that could potentially influence bu

- * Procedure:
 1. Employees must report all GFE offers to the Compliance department
 2. The Compliance department reviews and approves or rejects GFE requests based on company policies and regulatory requi
- * Roles:
 - + Employee: Reports GFE offers and maintains records of approved/ rejected requests
 - + Compliance Officer: Approves or rejects GFE requests and ensures compliance with company policies

2.3 Policy on Insider Trading and Securities Disclosure

The company has a policy prohibiting employees from engaging in insider trading and ensuring timely disclosure of material info

- * Procedure:
 1. Employees must report any potential insider trading violations to the Compliance department
 2. The Compliance department reviews and investigates alleged insider trading incidents
 3. The company will take disciplinary action against employees found guilty of insider trading
- * Roles:
 - + Employee: Reports suspected insider trading incidents and maintains records of approved/ rejected requests
 - + Compliance Officer: Investigates and takes disciplinary action against employees found guilty of insider trading

3. Compliance Monitoring, Penalties, and Operational Governance

3.1 Compliance Monitoring and Reporting

The company will conduct regular compliance monitoring and reporting to identify and address potential non-compliance issues.

* Procedure:

1. The Compliance department will review and analyze data from various sources (e.g., audit logs, financial reports)
2. The Compliance department will identify and report potential non-compliance issues to senior management and the Board of Directors

* Roles:

- + Compliance Officer: Conducts compliance monitoring and reporting
- + Senior Management: Reviews and responds to compliance reports

3.2 Penalties for Non-Compliance

The company will impose penalties for non-compliance with its policies and procedures.

* Procedure:

1. The Compliance department will investigate alleged non-compliance incidents
2. The company will take disciplinary action against employees found guilty of non-compliance, up to and including termination

* Roles:

- + Employee: Maintains records of approved/ rejected requests and reports suspected non-compliance incidents
- + Compliance Officer: Investigates and takes disciplinary action against employees found guilty of non-compliance

3.3 Operational Governance

The company will maintain effective operational governance to ensure compliance with its policies and procedures.

* Procedure:

1. The Compliance department will work closely with other departments (e.g., HR, Finance) to ensure compliance
2. The company will establish and maintain a comprehensive risk management framework

* Roles:

- + Compliance Officer: Works closely with other departments and establishes a comprehensive risk management framework
- + Department Heads: Ensure compliance with company policies and procedures