

HR Reference Document: HR-POLICY-2160

Department: HR

Author: Sara Lewis

Effective Date: 2022-11-04

Document Scope and Executive Summary

This document outlines the core policies and standard operating procedures for the Human Resources (HR) department at [Company Name].

Core Policies and Standard Operating Procedures

1.1 Employee Recruitment and Selection

The HR department shall be responsible for managing the recruitment process, including job postings, candidate screening, interviewing, and selection.

* Edge Case: In the event of a high-volume hiring need, the HR department may utilize external staffing agencies or freelance searchers.

* Standard Operating Procedure (SOP): Upon job offer acceptance, new hires shall complete an online onboarding module and attend a mandatory orientation session.

1.2 Employee Onboarding and Orientation

The HR department shall ensure that all new employees receive a comprehensive onboarding experience, including:

- * A welcome packet with company information, benefits, and policies
- * Access to employee databases and systems
- * Introduction to key contacts and departments
- * Mandatory orientation session within two weeks of the start date

1.3 Employee Performance Management

The HR department shall oversee the performance management process, which includes:

- * Annual performance reviews
 - * Goal setting and objective tracking
 - * Regular feedback sessions with managers and employees
 - * Development planning and training opportunities
- * Edge Case: In cases where an employee's performance is deemed unsatisfactory, the HR department shall facilitate a corrective action plan.

1.4 Employee Termination and Separation

The HR department shall manage employee terminations and separations, including:

- * Proper notification and documentation of termination
 - * Return of company property (e.g., equipment, documents)
 - * Outplacement support and career transition resources
- * Edge Case: In cases where an employee is terminated due to misconduct or gross negligence, the HR department shall ensure a thorough investigation and appropriate legal consultation.

Compliance Monitoring, Penalties, and Operational Governance

2.1 Compliance Monitoring

The HR department shall conduct regular audits and reviews to ensure adherence to company policies, procedures, and regulatory requirements.

* Edge Case: In cases where non-compliance is detected, the HR department shall notify management and facilitate corrective actions.

2.2 Penalties and Consequences

Failure to comply with HR policies or procedures may result in:

- * Verbal warnings
- * Written warnings
- * Suspension without pay
- * Termination

* Edge Case: In cases where an employee's behavior is deemed threatening or harassing, the HR department shall ensure prompt

2.3 Operational Governance

The HR department shall maintain accurate records and documentation of all HR-related activities, including:

- * Employee data and personnel files
- * Recruitment and selection processes
- * Onboarding and orientation procedures
- * Performance management and employee development

* Edge Case: In cases where HR records are incomplete or inaccurate, the HR department shall initiate a corrective action plan

This document is intended to serve as a comprehensive guide for all HR-related matters at [Company Name]. It is essential that