

HR Reference Document: HR-POLICY-3799

Metadata

Document ID: HR-POLICY-3799

Department: HR

Author: Kelly West

Effective Date: 2025-01-19

1. Document Scope and Executive Summary

This HR Reference Document outlines the core policies, standard operating procedures (SOPs), and compliance monitoring pro

2. Core Policies and Standard Operating Procedures

2.1 Employment Eligibility Verification

- * All new hires must provide documentation verifying their eligibility to work in the United States.
- * HR will verify employment eligibility through the I-9 form process.

2.2 Time and Attendance Management

- * Employees are expected to accurately record their time and attendance using the company's time tracking system.
- * Any discrepancies or errors must be reported to HR for resolution.

2.3 Performance Management

- * Annual performance evaluations will be conducted by supervisors for all employees.
- * Employee performance ratings will be based on job expectations, goals, and objectives.

2.4 Leave of Absence Policy

- * Employees are entitled to paid time off (PTO) and unpaid leave in accordance with company policies and applicable laws.
- * All leave requests must be submitted through the company's HR system and approved by HR or management.

3. Compliance Monitoring, Penalties, and Operational Governance

3.1 Compliance Monitoring

- * HR will monitor employee compliance with company policies, SOPs, and regulations.
- * Any non-compliance issues will be reported to management for corrective action.

3.2 Penalties and Corrective Action

- * Failure to comply with company policies or SOPs may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
- * HR will work with management to develop corrective actions plans for employees who violate company policies or SOPs.

3.3 Operational Governance

- * The HR department will maintain accurate and up-to-date records of employee data, benefits, and compliance information.
- * All HR processes and procedures must comply with applicable laws, regulations, and industry standards.

Note: This document is subject to change as needed. It is the responsibility of all employees, contractors, and vendors to familia