2. Core Policies and Standard Operating Procedures

2.1 Recruitment and Hiring

- * All job postings must be reviewed and approved by the hiring manager and HR representative before being posted on company website.
- * Resumes and applications will be processed in a timely manner, with a maximum processing time of three business days for initial review.
- * Interviews will be conducted by the hiring manager or their designee, and a minimum of two interviewers will be involved in the process.

2.2 Employee Relations

- * All employee complaints, grievances, or concerns must be reported to HR in writing, including electronic submissions.
- * Investigations into employee complaints will be conducted promptly, with a maximum investigation time of five business days for initial review.
- * Disciplinary actions will be taken in accordance with the company's Code of Conduct and applicable employment laws.

2.3 Benefits Administration

- * All benefits-related inquiries must be directed to the HR department, which will provide timely responses and resolve any discrepancies.
- * Benefit enrollment and changes will be processed within three business days of receipt of required documentation.

2.4 Compensation Management

- * Salary ranges for all positions will be established and reviewed annually by the compensation committee.
- * Performance-based bonuses will be administered in accordance with company policies and applicable tax laws.

2.5 Training and Development

- * All employees are encouraged to participate in training programs, workshops, or conferences related to their job functions or professional development.
- * HR will maintain a centralized calendar for employee training sessions and events.

3. Compliance Monitoring, Penalties, and Operational Governance

3.1 Compliance Monitoring

- * The HR department will conduct regular compliance audits to ensure adherence to company policies, laws, and regulations.
- * All employees are required to report any non-compliance or potential violations to the HR department.

3.2 Penalties for Non-Compliance

- * Failure to comply with company policies or relevant laws may result in disciplinary actions, up to and including termination of employment.
- * Repeated non-compliance may lead to more severe penalties, including fines or legal action.

3.3 Operational Governance

- * The HR department will maintain accurate and up-to-date records of employee data, training, and compliance activities.
- * All HR-related documents, policies, and procedures will be reviewed and updated annually, or as necessary, to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations.
