

HR-POLICY-9081
Department: HR
Author: Jason Jones
Effective Date: 2024-02-08

1. Document Scope and Executive Summary

This reference document outlines the core policies and standard operating procedures for the Human Resources (HR) department.

The scope of this document includes:

- * Core policies governing HR operations
- * Standard operating procedures for HR processes and activities
- * Compliance monitoring, penalties, and operational governance

2. Core Policies and Standard Operating Procedures

2.1. Recruitment and Hiring

- * The HR department is responsible for managing the recruitment process, including job posting, candidate screening, and interviewing.
- * All new hires must undergo a comprehensive onboarding program to ensure they understand company policies, procedures, and culture.

2.2. Employee Data Management

- * The HR system of record (SoR) is the primary source for maintaining employee data, including personal information, employment history, and performance records.
- * Employees are responsible for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of their own data in the SoR.

2.3. Leave and Absence Management

- * The HR department manages leave requests, including vacation, sick leave, and family/medical leave, according to company policy and applicable laws.
- * Employees must provide reasonable notice for leave requests, as outlined in the company's attendance policy.

2.4. Performance Management

- * The HR department provides guidance on performance management best practices, including goal setting, feedback, and evaluation.
- * All employees are responsible for maintaining accurate records of their work activities and accomplishments to support performance reviews.

3. Compliance Monitoring, Penalties, and Operational Governance

3.1. Compliance Monitoring

- * The HR department is responsible for monitoring compliance with company policies, laws, and regulations, including employment laws.
- * Employees are expected to comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and company policies, as outlined in the employee handbook.

3.2. Penalties and Consequences

- * Failure to comply with company policies or applicable laws may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
- * Repeated violations or egregious behavior may also lead to legal consequences, as necessary.

3.3. Operational Governance

- * The HR department is responsible for maintaining accurate records, reports, and analytics to ensure transparency and accountability.
- * All employees are expected to maintain confidentiality regarding sensitive company information, as outlined in the employee handbook.

By following this reference document, the HR department can ensure consistent application of policies, compliance with regulato