

TECH-ARCH-2440: Architecture Reference Document

Department: Architecture

Author: Daniel Greer

Effective Date: 2020-07-26

1. Document Scope and Executive Summary

This document serves as a comprehensive reference for the Architecture department's policies, procedures, and guidelines. It o

The Architecture department is responsible for designing, developing, and maintaining the organization's technology infrastru

2. Core Policies and Standard Operating Procedures

2.1 Information Technology (IT) Governance

- * The Architecture department will adhere to established IT governance frameworks, ensuring alignment with organizational stra
- * All architectural designs and solutions will be reviewed and approved by designated stakeholders before implementation.

2.2 Change Management

- * The Architecture department will maintain a centralized change management process, tracking all changes to the technology i
- * Changes will be categorized based on severity and impact, with corresponding approval processes in place for each level.

2.3 Design Principles

- * The Architecture department will adhere to established design principles, including:
 - + Scalability and flexibility
 - + Security and compliance
 - + Interoperability and integration
 - + Usability and accessibility
- * All architectural designs will be developed with these principles in mind, ensuring a cohesive and effective technology infrastru

2.4 Communication and Collaboration

- * The Architecture department will maintain open communication channels with stakeholders, including IT teams, business units
- * Regular meetings and progress updates will be scheduled to ensure alignment and minimize misunderstandings.

3. Compliance Monitoring, Penalties, and Operational Governance

3.1 Compliance Monitoring

- * The Architecture department will conduct regular compliance audits to ensure adherence to established policies, procedures, a
- * Non-compliance may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

3.2 Penalties for Non-Compliance

- * Failure to comply with architectural standards or guidelines may result in:
 - + Revisions to the offending design
 - + Additional training or education on relevant topics
 - + Temporary or permanent removal from architecture-related responsibilities

3.3 Operational Governance

- * The Architecture department will maintain a centralized project management system, tracking all projects and initiatives.
- * Regular status updates and progress reports will be provided to stakeholders, ensuring transparency and accountability.

By adhering to the guidelines outlined in this document, the Architecture department can ensure effective operation, promote co