

Metadata

- * **Document ID:** TECH-ARCH-8259
- * **Department:** Architecture
- * **Author:** Danielle Lawrence
- * **Effective Date:** 2025-05-23

1. Document Scope and Executive Summary

Purpose

This document outlines the reference guidelines for the Architecture department, providing a comprehensive framework for arch

Objective

The objective of this document is to establish clear policies, procedures, and standards for the Architecture department, ensuring

Scope

This document applies to all employees involved in architectural design, development, and maintenance, including architects, de

2. Core Policies and Standard Operating Procedures

Policy: Architectural Design Standards

- * The Architecture department shall adhere to the approved architectural design standards for all projects.
- * All architectural designs shall be reviewed and approved by the designated stakeholders before implementation.

Procedure: Design Development and Maintenance

1. Design Request: Submit a formal request for design development, including project scope, timeline, and budget.
2. Design Review: Conduct regular design reviews to ensure compliance with organizational standards and stakeholder requirements.
3. Design Implementation: Implement approved designs in accordance with the agreed-upon timeline and budget.

Policy: Technology Stack and Tools

- * The Architecture department shall use the approved technology stack and tools for all projects.
- * All employees involved in architecture-related activities shall be trained on the approved technology stack and tools.

Procedure: System Integration and Testing

1. System Design: Develop a system design document outlining the technical requirements, architecture, and testing plans.
2. System Integration: Conduct thorough system integration tests to ensure seamless connectivity and functionality.
3. System Testing: Perform comprehensive system testing to identify and resolve any issues.

3. Compliance Monitoring, Penalties, and Operational Governance

Compliance Monitoring

- * The Architecture department shall conduct regular compliance monitoring to ensure adherence to organizational policies and p
- * Non-compliance shall be addressed through corrective action plans and training.

### Penalty Policy

- * In the event of non-compliance, employees may be subject to penalties, including but not limited to:
  - + Verbal warning
  - + Written warning
  - + Suspension
  - + Termination

### Operational Governance

- * The Architecture department shall establish clear operational governance procedures for project management, resource allocation
- * All projects shall have a designated project manager responsible for ensuring compliance with organizational policies and procedures

By following the guidelines outlined in this document, the Architecture department will be able to maintain high-quality architecture